NEW YORK
JOURNAL AMERICAN
Approved For Release 2004/04/08 : CIA-RDP75-00149R000500140015-9

FEB 1 5 1965

By RICHARD BARR

med."

colm X hurled this charge at after the blaze.
the head of the Black Muslim "They fear I might create an everyone what is going on and theirs. But I'm not afraid, who is responsible" for the fire COURT ACTS bombing of his Queens home While "X" was en route back way or shut me up," said Mal-Wahl's hands.

colm of the wrecking of hls With the st., Elmhurst.

"I will not move. My family manager, said: understands what is involved and will not run from them," have to hear about it (the fire) on the radio. He didn't even give us the courtesy of a phone of Qubilah, 4. Illyasah, 2, and Gamilah, 5 months—fled the house unharmed about 2:45 a.m. when at least two, and possibly three Molotov cocktails reportedly crashed through the living room windows and burst into flames.

Malcolm, who was asked to vacate the Muslim-owned house after breaking with the Muslims last year to set up his own "I believe that it was doncrival militant anti-white moveon orders of Elijah Muham ment, spoke by telephone before heading home from Detroit where he'd gone to keep a Black Nationalist leader Mal-speaking engagement shortly Movement today as he headed organization that will be better back for New York "to tell than theirs and detract from to Now York, Civil Court Justice The controversial leader said Maurice Wahl vacated a stay his statements would come at of eviction against him. In lifta meeting of his Organization ing the stay, Justice Wahl of Afro-American Unity at 8 noted that his decision to have o'clock tonight in the Audubon Malcolm evicted from the Elm-Ballroom, 166th st. and Broad-hurst house had been appealed to the Appellate Term of "It doesn't frighten me; it Supreme Court. Thus, jurisdicdoesn't quiet me down in any tion was taken out of Justice

With the court's decision small brick home at 23-11 97th still, far from final, Joseph X, self-described Muslim business

"We own this place, man. He and they feel the same way I was going to be evicted. We do. I am not afraid of them have money tied up here. We